Calling of the Disciples: Jesus calls his disciples to come and to follow him. The “immediately” leave what they are doing and follow him. The urgency of the Lord’s call is because our salvation is at stake. When the Lord call us, we answer without hesitation, without second guessing, without regard for anything but the Lord. All of us are called to holiness and to strive to be Christ-like in our world. Let us heed the Lord’s call to us.

WHAT ARE THE LEONINE PRAYERS? Prayers to be said after Mass began with Pope Pius IX and continued under Pope Leo XIII with other prayers added. These prayers consist of 3 Hail Mary's, the Hail, Holy Queen, a prayer said by the priest for the protection of the Church, the prayer to St. Michael and three invocations to the Sacred Heart. We will begin to recite these prayers after weekday masses once again, for the protection of the Church and the Faith in these uncertain times. We will continue to pray the Prayer to St. Michael after the Masses on Sunday.

MAKING ROOM FOR CHILDREN AT SUNDAY MASS

Worship is one of the basic ways people learn what it means to be Christian. Children learn worship by worshipping with the congregation Sunday after Sunday.

They learn they belong to Christ and are welcome in His Church.

They learn to know the Lord's Prayer and other parts of the liturgy from memory. They build a fund of memorable, shared experiences of Christian community against which they may draw when they are older

They are enriched by the beauty of music and art as expressions of praise and as human responses to God.

They hear stories from the Bible read and interpreted, and begin to see Christian worship as one place where God may speak to them.

They witness the Eucharist as a sign of God's kindness and favor.

They discover that they are valued as persons by God and by the people of God at Church.

Bring Children to worship may not always be easy, but it is an essential part of their growth in Christ. The Body of Christ assembled is incomplete in their absence. We need children.
